CHARTER FOR THE DIOCESE OF CLEVELAND CYO

This Charter defines the organizational framework of the Diocese of Cleveland Catholic Youth Organization (CYO). CYO, administered by Catholic Charities, is rooted in a mutual partnership between parents and families, Member organizations, and CYO administration. The foundational components are as follows:

- The CYO Charter & Bylaws requires an annual choice by parishes and schools to be part of the Diocese of Cleveland CYO. Choosing to be a Member indicates full and active support and adherence to the spirit and letter of the CYO Charter & Bylaws.
- CYO Members and Athletic Administration work together to further the mission of CYO: CYO inspires young people to know God, to love God, and to serve God through athletics.
- Member programs are an extension of the parish, school or Catholic organization. CYO athletics is most effective when integrated into the life of the Christian community.
- The Charter clarifies the primary roles and relationships into 3 areas:
 1. Diocese Athletic Administration – Governance, Organization and Oversight of CYO diocesan sports programs performed by Catholic Charities.
 2. Sports Program Operation - Program personnel who manage sport programs.
 3. Member Administration - Organization of CYO sports programs at the Member level (Parishes and Schools).

ARTICLE 1 - NAME and PURPOSE

1-1-1 The name of this organization is the Diocese of Cleveland - Catholic Youth Organization (CYO). The purpose of CYO athletics is to provide athletic competition for the youth of the Diocese of Cleveland. This is accomplished by:

- A. providing an organizational structure for athletic competition;
- B. establishing regulations for athletic governance for team and individual sports;
- C. establishing and monitoring standards for individuals, coaches, volunteers, and contest officials;
- D. providing information and program materials to facilitate communication among Members;
- E. establishing and monitoring standards for sportsmanship, fair and equitable competition, and risk management;
- F. preventing the exploitation of Members, athletes and coaches; and,
- G. providing an opportunity for as many eligible young people as possible to experience spiritual, physical, mental, and emotional growth through participation in CYO sports.

ARTICLE 2 - CATHOLIC CHARITIES and CYO MISSION AND VALUES

2-1-1 Mission: Under the leadership of the Bishop of Cleveland and inspired by the Gospel, Catholic Charities continues the mission of Jesus by responding to those in need through an integrated system of quality services designed to respect the dignity of every athlete and build a just and compassionate society.

2-1-2 Catholic Charities Vision: Catholic Charities envisions a world touched by God's love: where we alleviate poverty and need, and all people share justly in the blessings of creation.

2-1-3 CYO Mission Statement: CYO inspires young people to know God, to love God, and to serve God through athletics

2-1-4 CYO Vision Statement: CYO envisions young people actively practicing their faith on their teams and in their families, schools, parishes, and in the world.

2-1-5 CYO Administration aims to:

- A. ORGANIZE CYO to provide fair and equitable athletic opportunities and administration of contests and events
- B. COMMUNICATE the mission, vision, values, and goals of CYO to all persons in CYO;
- C. SUPPORT CYO Athletic Directors, Coaches, Leaders, Athletes, and Parents to further the mission of CYO;
- D. OPERATE tournaments and events that demonstrate the mission and values of CYO;
- E. PARTNER with mission aligned organizations to increase resources for CYO programs.

2-1-6 Catholic Charities and CYO Values

- A. Dignity of Person: In the Genesis story of creation, we are told that human beings are created in the very image and likeness of God. (Genesis 1:27) The Scriptures further reflect that as God created all the aspects of the universe, along with man and woman, God looked upon creation and noted that it was "good." In fact, God ultimately proclaims that all God had created was indeed "very good." (Gen. 1:31)
- B. Concern for the Poor: "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me...In so far as you did this to one of the least of these sisters and brothers of mine, you did it for me." (Matthew 25)
- C. Justice: "God asks of you only this, to act justly to love tenderly and to walk humbly with your God." (Micah 6:8)
- D. Hope: "I came that they may have life and have it more abundantly." (John 10:10)
- E. Stewardship: "As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace." (1 Peter 4:10)

ARTICLE 3 - PHILOSOPHY

- 3-1-1 CYO Athletics endeavors to help young people be more Christ-like in the way they live. CYO programs focus on the total development of children to influence the formation of Christian values in a Member's ministry to young people. CYO athletics therefore requires the Member to provide the support, leadership, and supervision such a program needs.
- 3-1-2 The development of the young person, not the athletic activity, is the primary focus of CYO Athletics. Therefore:
- A. all athletic programs should be well organized and maintain standards of high quality;
 - B. all athletes have the right to participate in every contest - mandatory playing time; and,
 - C. all athletes have the opportunity to participate at appropriate grade and competition levels.
- 3-1-3 All CYO volunteers are serving in a program of the Catholic Church. They must strive to demonstrate Christ-like behaviors in their actions at all times. They are responsible to teach that success in CYO is striving to achieve individual and team goals while respecting athletes, coaches, teammates, opponents and officials.
- 3-1-4 CYO volunteers are essential and provide time, energy, resources, and expertise. They must complete required training to provide a safe environment and develop the knowledge and skills to serve young people effectively.
- 3-1-5 CYO programs are most effective when used to invite, welcome, and engage children into the life of the Catholic community. The dynamic relationship between athletics, family life, and parish life is essential for quality CYO programs.
- 3-1-6 Competition is an opportunity to demonstrate athletic skills while striving to bring out the best in all participants. CYO aims to build Christian fellowship before, during and after competition to uphold the dignity of all persons.
- 3-1-7 CYO Athletics is committed to the acceptance of, and love for, people of all nationalities, races, physical abilities, and economic resources. CYO is committed to building an environment where all children are valued as having been made in God's image and likeness. There is no place in CYO for structural, institutional, or systemic racism, including racist behavior or racist language. We are compelled to build a Christian community that demonstrates caring for one another in the ways that Jesus taught. Pope Francis reminds us "to work together to ensure that all children can take up sport in circumstances of dignity, especially those who are excluded due to poverty."

In these cases, the coach must inform the Site Director and the opposing coach of the athlete's ineligibility before the contest. The cause of not participating must be marked on the game score sheet or line-up participation form.
